

When It Comes To Easter Gifts, Chocolate Bunnies Are The BEST!

Rabbits & Ducklings & Chicks - Oh My!!

These little furry & feathered friends have a really tough time, especially around Easter. After all, people associate these cute animals with the holiday. They are adorable. Children beg their parents for one. Pet stores & feed stores have them on display...so tempting. They are an impulse buy just waiting to happen. Please remember that this impulse buy is not a toy. IT IS A LIVING, BREATHING, INNOCENT CREATURE.

Rabbits, Ducklings & Chicks

have personalities, dietary needs and care requirements that are much different from a dog or cat. When these delicate animals are sold to ill-prepared buyers, the outlook is always bleak. Once the novelty of these "Easter gifts" wears off, the owners quickly tire of the animal and view their pet as a nuisance. The animals are neglected, attacked by other family pets, given away or dumped outside, almost insuring an untimely death.

Teach Your Children About The Value Of Life

Animals are not disposable. When you adopt an animal, you take responsibility for a life - to care for and nurture that animal for their lifetime.

Before adopting any animal, do the proper research online. Talk to a vet. Read books about the pet you're interested in. The time to decide if you're up for the responsibility is BEFORE you make the decision to adopt.
